Leicester House an impressive building in Melbourne's Flinders Lane precinct, built in 1886, this stunning building features beautiful deep cornices while the upper most level features Florentine arches which give the building its Gothic feel. The combined and elaborate facades, form an attractive elevation and contribute an important element to the historical Flinders Lane streetscape. A beautiful Heritage building of 20 Private Residences only, each one unique and stunning. Nestled within, discover this impressive showpiece that has been loved and enjoyed by its owners for over 15 years and meticulously updated and maintained. Most owners in this building have enjoyed living here for over 10 – 20 years. Says a lot about the lifestyle on offer here. Boasting a spacious 150 m<sup>2</sup> of space and 5 metre ceilings, you will be delighted. Comprising open plan living and entertaining with stainless steel and stone kitchen with quality European appliances, gas cooking and integrated fridge. Featuring custom-made double-glazed casement windows ensuring the acoustic privacy is outstanding and polished timber floors. With two oversized bedrooms featuring original red brick walls and original deep archways. Master with glamorous tiled ensuite. Both bedrooms with oodles of wardrobe space. Main bathroom with a bathtub too and a good size Euro laundry. Drive straight into your secure garage car park off the lane with a storage cage too. This unique building offers quality lifestyle for the privileged residents in spades.
