Brand New Apartment 825 per week Being only 10 km from Brisbane's CBD, Mount Gravatt appeals to a wide range of people including working professionals, young families, and students. Not only is Mount Gravatt located in a prime position, but there are many other reasons why people love to call this suburb home. Getting there is a breeze with its great, accessible public transport services. Mount Gravatt has two main bus stations, Griffith University and Garden City as well as many bus stops scattered throughout the suburb. According to Translink, it takes 18 minutes to get to Mount Gravatt to the CBD via bus. Getting out of Brisbane is also extremely simple and convenient with the four main highways - M1, M2, Pacific Motorway, and Ipswich Motorway, being only 5 minutes from Mount Gravatt. The great thing about the Mount Gravatt lifestyle is it's similar to being inner city, without the hustle and bustle. Mount Gravatt has an array of schools in the area to choose from, including the sought Mountain Gravatt State School and Clairvaux Mackillop College.
