This beautiful character home has recently been renovated throughout, with the walls neutrally painted and the warmth of the jarrah floorboards shining through. With three double bedrooms, the floorplan also allows for different configurations of the space, with the option of a formal lounge, study, and informal living room to the rear of the home. Plenty of bench space and cupboard storage feature in the contemporary kitchen and the bathroom is strikingly modern. Surrounding the home are established gardens, all bore reticulated. The single garage provides a lot of old school work space (or just general storage!), with the paved area granting the resident plenty of outdoor entertaining area. Lawnmowing is included in the rent, with pruning maintenance to the rear half of the garden also included. FEATURES: Three bedrooms One bathroom Separate laundry Storage garage Split system air conditioning Bore reticulated gardens
