Enjoy the serenity of heavenly Harp Village from this bright modern apartment, secure and spacious in a stylish complex located in a quiet street within footsteps of every lifestyle need. Ideal for first home buyers, young professionals, downsizers or investors, this centrally located haven of comfort is an outstanding entry point to coveted Kew East. Timber flooring flows beautifully throughout the open plan living and dining, basking in the warmth of a north-facing aspect for fantastic natural light. A floor-to-ceiling sliding door offers seamless entry to the generous undercover balcony, perfect for relaxed alfresco dining with a lovely leafy district outlook. Complementing the living and dining is the sleek contemporary kitchen, neat and tidy with a sparkling stone benchtop, pristine splashback, ample storage and stainless steel appliances including gas cooktop, oven and dishwasher. Both carpeted bedrooms feature mirrored built-in robes, each sharing a chic bathroom with elegant tiling, mirrored vanity and extra-large rainfall shower. Additional highlights of the apartment include ducted heating and cooling, a hidden Euro laundry, video intercom entry and underground safe and secure parking with access directly into the building. Apartment also has large lockable cage to store large bulky items including your bicycle. Stroll mere metres to harmonious Harp Village for delightful boutiques, cafes and eateries, as well as tram transport into bustling Kew Junction for further shopping, dining and supermarkets. Explore Hays Paddock, refreshing cycling trails and golfing on the Yarra. Walk to Kew East Primary and Kew High School, with stress-free commuting into the city via tram or the Eastern Freeway.
