The shopping strip is out in front, north sun is behind, and big small-group style is right here! Rising above Highett's booming shopping and hospitality strip in a brilliant boutique group of just four, this first-floor two bedroom apartment is bathed in all-day sun with living extending northwards through bi-folds to a sheltered balcony. High on quality and big on style with a sleek Smeg appliance and 2-Pack cabinetry, a spacious kitchen starring a shiny smoked-glass splashback, this light-filled apartment is ready to rent or enjoy with a flexible two-way ensuite lit by a soaring skylight, a well-appointed European laundry, and abundance storage including well-fitted built-in robes in both bedrooms. Designer detailed with stone benchtops extending even to the laundry cabinetry, wideboard Oak floors meeting plush new charcoal carpets, and streamlined blinds enclosing each window, this brilliant boutique apartment meets a prestige specification including reverse-cycle air-conditioning, intercom-entry and easy-access rear garaging plus a 6 cubic-metre storeroom. At home at the top end of Highett Rd's most charming restaurants and cafes within a few doors, the station within 250m and the CBD within a quick commute.
