Set within a thriving locale walking distance from parks, cafes, esteemed schools, Glenferrie and Auburn station and Glenferrie Road trams and entertainment, this serene first floor haven boasts security, sophistication and style, elevated by a sunlit westerly disposition, soaring ceilings and engineered oak floors for timeless modern comfort. True privacy and seamless indoor/outdoor entertaining connect a spacious open plan living and dining domain with a generous terrace for alfresco dining, whilst a contemporary stone island kitchen centres the home, featuring stainless steel Smeg appliances, cleverly concealed storage throughout and an LG dishwasher. City glimpses from the main suite provide an idyllic outlook from its study nook, also accessing a private ensuite and mirrored built in robes. A second, light filled bedroom comprises mirrored built in robes, serviced by a sleek central bathroom with bath. Every room in the apartment benefits from its own heating/cooling split system, also offering secure entry with video intercom, in built desk and shelving for superb working-from-home flexibility, a storage cage, European laundry and lift access to secure basement parking. Truly unbeatable lifestyle appeal within this inner urban hub and family friendly neighbourhood presents a prime opportunity not to be missed, relishing a quiet, peaceful position set on the opposite side of Barkers Road's hustle and bustle.
