Northerly sunshine streams into this boutique apartment with walls of glass framing views over the iconic Finger Wharf and Woolloomooloo Bay that create a striking backdrop to the streamlined designer interiors. One of only 18 in The Anchorage, the spacious one-bedroom apartment opens to a sun-drenched terrace with secure parking on title and ducted air for year-round comfort. Herringbone Oak floors, stone finishes and matte black accents deliver a stylish feel while its vibrant harbourside location is footsteps to some of Sydney's finest waterfront restaurants and just 700m to Potts Point's fashionable urban village. Walk across the Domain to the CBD or soak up the leafy serenity of the Royal Botanic Gardens or enjoy a swim at the open-air pool overlooking the harbour spectacle.
