Presenting its timeless allure, this spacious Victorian terrace exudes a bright and inviting ambiance. Situated in proximity to the vibrant attractions of Bay Street, as well as the captivating bay and bustling city, this charming home offers an excellent introduction to a desirable lifestyle. Inside, the residence features an open-plan living and dining area that seamlessly transitions to a delightful private courtyard garden, with the potential for off-street parking through a generously sized rear right of way. Additionally, the interior boasts two generously proportioned bedrooms, each adorned with charming fireplaces, a beautifully renovated central bathroom, and a convenient laundry area complete the internal accommodation.
