A great size family home that has been in the family since 1956 watching the children, grandchildren and great grandchildren grow up and play on this amazing 847sqm block. Although the property needs to be sold, the memories of growing up in such a great suburb will be with family forever. Built to last original throughout has been kept in great condition. The options are endless. Move in and be super comfortable. The rooms are large and the layout is ideal for many more years to come. Renovate and extend, there certainly is no shortage of space to do so or build your dream home, demolish and start again. There is an opportunity not only to buy 103 but also 101 as both these properties are available on or before auction.

- Elevated north east aspect which catches the sea breezes, and a commanding view of the surrounding area
- 847sqm. slightly sloping block
- 3 great size bedrooms, 2 with built-ins and an air conditioner in the main bedroom
- Lounge room has a split system air conditioner
- Single garage
- Gardens sheds

Many young families are flocking to the area and for good reasons Kahibah has so much to offer, the community is growing. The Kahibah village is certainly ideal, stroll down enjoy a coffee, a play in the park or fish & chips on the weekend. Schools, public transport, charlestown Square, beaches and newcastle CBD are all minutes away. Don't miss out as these properties on this size block are becoming rare to find. Building and pest reports are available
