Auction Location: On Site This mid century charmer surrounded by beautiful gardens and leafy aspects visible from every corner of the home enrich internal spaces with an ever present sense of calm. Located in the FHSZ, moments from Frankston's CBD and iconic waterfront, the expansive allotment is also just a stones throw away from Creekside walking trails leading to Oliver's Hill and a morning coffee at the beach. Lovingly nurtured, this property is sprawled across 1071sqm (approx.) of beautiful gardens with an invitation to enjoy the existing character of the home whilst designing future enhancements (STCA). Inside, three bedrooms offer an array of leafy outlooks whilst sharing a central bathroom. Curated as a genuine retreat without compromising, the home also includes polished boards, ceiling fans throughout, split system heating/cooling & has been meticulously cared for by its one owner. Presenting an unbelievable landscape to enhance the home, immediate prospects include rental returns whilst finalising plans and permits for your dream residence in Frankston South's most charming pocket.
