Flaunting contemporary style and expansive internal space, this single-bedroom apartment delivers premium luxury and an oversized outdoor sanctuary in a vibrant lifestyle locale. Situated above the popular Liar Liar café within a boutique building, the residence affords instant access to Glenferrie Roads delectable eateries, city-bound transport, shopping and recreation while surrounded by Melbourne's most prestigious education. Welcomed by an open plan domain the property is showered in natural light from its northern aspect from a wall of floor-to-ceiling windows, affording a sunlit ambience in which to relax, dine and entertain. A wrap-around sundrenched alfresco terrace flows seamlessly from the living and dining area, providing a picturesque setting for lively barbecue celebrations. A bold, fully appointed Smeg kitchen delivers style and practicality, smartly dressed in smooth stone benches and dramatic red splashbacks. The large single bedroom is north facing with built in robes, enriched by an on-trend bathroom with contrasting black and white styling. Complete with European laundry, secure basement parking and storage space (directly in front), this chic pad delivers cosmopolitan inner-city living, surrounded by endless restaurants, bars and cafes, while just paces from sporting facilities, lush parklands and Swinburne University.
