In a lifestyle locale walking distance from local parks and Heatherdale Train Station, the floorplan is suited to family life, revealing a spacious lounge and dining room, with a separate living room placed at the rear of the home. The traditional kitchen features an Ariston wall oven, electric cooktop and a semi-integrated dishwasher, with accommodation including three robed bedrooms and a central family bathroom. Outdoors, the near-level backyard features a large covered alfresco zone, with property highlights including a gas space heater, split system air conditioning, outdoor awnings, a storage shed and a double auto garage. In a prized location walking distance from Mitcham's thriving shopping precinct and Train Station, zoned for Antonio Park Primary School and Mullauna College, with swift access to local parks and walking trails, Eastland Shopping Centre and the Eastern Freeway/EastLink.
