

104 Tamar Street, Palmyra, WA 6157

yard

Sold House

Monday, 23 October 2023

104 Tamar Street, Palmyra, WA 6157

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 465 m2

Type: House

Toby Bellegarde
0411166983

$1,260,000

This property is impeccably-presented both inside and out, making it very easy to live in. Exceptionally well built and in the most desirable suburb of Palmyra on 465sqm land, the securely-gated entry is great for not only kids, but the household pets as well. As you step through the front door into the entrance, you're greeted by a clean neutral palette and a meticulously constructed family home of high quality. Bonus lounge room offering a second living space for families, and works perfectly as a kids play room or chill out zone. Overlooking the sparkling swimming pool, the open plan kitchen offers a generous expanse of countertop space with breakfast bar. The light filled living and dining spaces extend a warm invitation to the outdoor spaces through sliding doors to the alfresco area - the ideal area for outdoor dining and entertaining. Inside, the pick of the bedrooms is the spacious master with its generous walk in robe and en-suite bathroom. Three further bedrooms are all generously proportioned and share the family bathroom with bath and separate shower. An endless array of conveniences and attractions, two excellent local primary schools, Palmyra's Sunday farmer's market, and the benefits of a generous landholding within a safe and family-friendly community. - Immaculately presented inside and out- Extra high ceilings throughout- Two separate living areas- Reverse cycle air-conditioning- Swimming pool- Double car garage with rear access roller door - Survey-Strata title- Warm community, friendly neighbours- Convenient location - Walk to shopping, cafes, transport, Primary schools Please call selling agent Toby Bellegarde from Yard Property on 0411 166 983 for further information and your appointment to view.