With its Art Deco Industrial origins, Supply Co. Richmond not only offers stunning residences, it's incredible facilities really do set a new benchmark in inner-city living. Designed with a focus on lifestyle, this gorgeous complex needs to be inspected to be appreciated! Architects Peddle Thorp and developers Forza Capital collaborated to create Richmond's Supply Co. residential complex, creating a stress-free, inner-city lifestyle. Beautifully preserving the historic buildings concrete façade, history and modern day living fuse together so seamlessly. The apartment itself offers a spacious, modern and sleek design. The sizeable open plan living area is enhanced by timber floors, flowing seamlessly out to the expansive balcony with undercover alfresco dining and entertaining space and city views. The sophisticated kitchen is superbly appointed with Miele appliances including gas cooktop, oven and dishwasher and plentiful storage. Both bedrooms feature built in robes, master with study nook are accompanied by a central bathroom with Euro Laundry. Additional features include a secure car space, storage cage and access to the communal amenities, conveniently located on the same floor as the apartment. Including a communal living area, outdoor terrace with barbecues and a multipurpose studio. Located just moments from Victoria Gardens Shopping Centre and Yarra River walking trails, Richmond's famous café culture with Victoria Streets diverse restaurant scene. Trams provide easy city access with world-renowned universities within easy reach.
