Recently, a ground-floor apartment in the prestigious Bloom Apartments complex has been sold off-market, highlighting our specialized approach in connecting exclusive properties with discerning buyers. Located ideally between the chic Oxford Street and the tranquil Brisbane River, this property caters perfectly to luxury enthusiasts, downsizers, professionals, and investors seeking a lifestyle of convenience and high style. The Bloom Apartments, a collection of only 32 residences, offers not just a home but a statement of luxury and exclusivity. This stylish abode features lavish interiors and top-tier finishes that speak volumes of its elegance. The apartment itself is a masterpiece of design, featuring sleek tiles and a sophisticated monochromatic color palette that enhances the spacious open-plan living and dining area. This central living space, flooded with natural light, is perfect for both relaxation and entertaining, and is complemented by a modern kitchen equipped with stone benchtops, quality appliances, and a gas cooktop. Adding to its allure, the apartment includes a large, covered east-facing balcony accessible via grand sliding glass doors, presenting yet another luxurious entertaining space. The generous master bedroom, with its large windows, built-in robe, and opulent ensuite, offers a private retreat within the home. The comforts extend with practical features such as ceiling fans, ducted air-conditioning, secure parking for one car, and an additional storage cage. Residents also have exclusive access to the glamorous rooftop swimming pool and entertainment area, boasting 360-degree views of the cityscape. Positioned a short stroll from the vibrant dining, shopping, and entertainment options on Oxford Street, and minutes from the Bulimba Ferry Terminal, this residence offers unmatched convenience. It is also well-placed within top school catchment areas and near prestigious educational institutions, making it a coveted address in Bulimba.
