This house will be the perfect rental for a family that needs a property short term - maybe while renovations are being done on your own home or if you are having trouble locating that perfect family home and you need a short term option while you search. There's something truly and unequivocally Australian about enjoying a few drinks with friends or family overlooking beautiful views as the sun goes down. If you know that feeling I'm talking about then you're going to LOVE 105 Redwood Street, Stafford Heights. Come along to one of our inspections and see what it has to offer! We're talking about a FOUR BEDROOM home with bedrooms that are fantastic sizes. Not a single one of those, "this isn't a bedroom..." bedrooms tacked on the end. All Bedrooms with built-in wardrobes! We've also got a large living area indoors that's very spacious and open AND 2 GORGEOUS bathrooms (laundry included in the biggest one!). That's not even touching on the stunning kitchen with massive bench-space! I mean there's so much here. What do you even want in a rental property? - Air-con to keep you cool in Summer - Polished timber flooring! - Security screens - Pet friendly! But BY FAR the BEST PART ABOUT THIS PLACE is the deck. It's split into two sections and it's covered by stunningly cool insulated roofing to keep you cool this Summer. The city views tie the ribbon on the whole package and there's a nice bit of yard out the back too. Now aside from telling you there's a 2 car lockup garage and room for three more cars, there's also the note of location! Do you want to know how close we are to Stafford State School? 30 minutes on a snail, 30 seconds on foot. If you've got kids at this school, they're set. Don't even need to pick them up, just fly a message on a paper plane telling them it's time to come home. Redwood street is the bridge between Trout's Road and Appleby Road so you're close to everything else. Stafford Shops. North West Private Hospital, takeaway snags (Bunnings) and the Homemaker Centre (goodbye old Manchester!). Local transport options are plenty too. Book an inspection online! 1. Send an enquiry using the Email Agent button below and we will instantly respond with available inspection times OR Click on the "BOOK" button (available on our website, from the search rentals page) 2.
