Beautifully maintained in near-new condition, this bright 2 bedder is the perfect example of easy, stylish living in the heart of vibrant Niddrie, with Keilor Road cafes, city trams and local buses literally just footsteps away. Designed for low-maintenance style, this impressive apartment boasts light-filled open-plan living with a sleek stone-bench kitchen, two spacious bedrooms with BIR, a generously sized private balcony for alfresco dining and a spacious bathroom with double-width shower. In a quiet position at the rear of this boutique block, it also features a separate European-style laundry with ample space, stainless steel appliances, split system heating/cooling, bedroom heaters, video intercom entry, secure basement parking with remote access and a storage cage. In an unbeatable lifestyle location with transport in abundance, it's also easy walking distance to Keilor Road's delightful cafes, restaurants and shopping, including Niddrie Central Shopping Centre.
