Located on the first level of Alexandra Apartments and a moments walk to Highetts train station and shopping precinct; this contemporary one bedroom apartment is truly one of the most prestigious and sought after locations in Melbourne. Boasting a carefully designed and considered open plan layout this apartment combines sophistication and practicality inviting you to enjoy the large double glazed windows bathing the apartment in natural light. Leading to the well sized alfresco balcony, perfect for entertaining or relaxing. Immaculately presented, this internal space presents sleek and refined surfaces which include white marbled stone benches and timber floors; the kitchen hosting SMEG appliances and a mirrored splash back. The spacious bedroom with floor to ceiling built in robes and carpeted flooring providing an additional luxurious space and a separate bathroom equipped with ample lighting and storage. With secure basement car park and your own personal storage cage and bike rack this is a great place to call home.
