Relax on your front deck and enjoy the beautiful bay breezes in this comfortable family home. Situated on an expansive 693m² allotment you will have room for everything with this property. The second story of the home features the main living areas with an open concept kitchen, dining and family room with polished timber floors. The home also features three bedrooms all with ceiling fans, two tastefully renovated bathrooms, tiled downstairs rumpus or teenagers retreat, fireplace to main living area and double gated side access. Step down to your spacious covered outdoor entertaining area and you will be pleasantly surprised by the lush surrounds of the well looked-after tropical gardens. The expansive entertaining area will have you entertaining your friends and family all year round. This home is in close proximity to local schools, public transport, Horizon Shopping Centre, and is only a short drive to Wellington Point cafes and restaurants. Only 30 minutes from Brisbane CBD this property will not last long.
