On the market for the first time in over 50 years, this beloved family sanctuary offers ample accommodation for those with many children, multiple generations or live-in nannies. Peaceful, private and the ultimate escape from the hustle and bustle, it's immersed in a natural bush setting and enjoys direct access to waterfront Burns Bay Reserve, dog park and playground. An open plan galley-style kitchen presides over the charming formal lounge room, with various other living and dining spaces scattered throughout the home. Floor-to-ceiling glass windows capture outdoor pool views to the South and garden outlooks to the North. Boasting a prized north-to-rear aspect, most rooms are blessed with an abundance of natural light. Ready for immediate enjoyment yet brimming with potential for a sleek cosmetic update, it's convenient to St Ignatius College Riverview, Tamborine Bay Park and walking tracks and thriving Lane Cove village and 'The Canopy', which are all just minutes away. - Handmade exposed bricks, leadlight window, sense of history - Stone kitchen, sleek stainless steel appliances, Bosch dishwasher - Huge lounge room with open fireplace, separate formal dining - Casual living/dining area, downstairs rumpus room / teen retreat - Outdoor pool, spa and waterfall, rear garden with northerly sun - Powered by the sun with a modern Solar System - Sizeable bedrooms with built-ins, main with walk-in and ensuite - Light-filled bathrooms, ducted air conditioning, heaps of storage - Double undercover carport, sought-after family-friendly enclave
