Tucked away at the rear of a secure contemporary group and extremely private, this spacious open plan apartment is an offering that effortlessly caters to a variety of lifestyles. Busy commuters, downsizers and professionals will love the low maintenance ease and proximity to Highett station, lifestyle buyers will relish the incredible array of restaurants & bars that are readily at hand and investors will leap at the chance to procure a fabulous rental property in a truly vibrant, amenity-rich locale. Nestled on the first floor, with the peace of mind of intercom entry along with the convenience of lift access, the light-lavished apartment features a generous indoor entertaining zone as well as a fabulously private & sundrenched alfresco terrace. Stainless steel appliances and sleek stone surfaces are highlights of the well-equipped gourmet kitchen, while both bedrooms are of generous proportions; each boasting fitted storage. Two bathrooms are also offered – including the master ensuite – while split system heating/cooling and parking are among the apartment's standout inclusions. In a quiet low-traffic cul-de-sac, this beachside-of-the-highway proposition is close to Southland shopping centre, bus stops, parks and so much more for the very best in daily living.
