Located in the heart of the Honeysuckle precinct in Newcastle's thriving CBD, this modern studio apartment is ultra convenient with plenty of cafes, restaurants and public transport options nearby, offering investment appeal with long or short term rental potential. Showcasing stunning city views and flooded with natural light, it's surprisingly spacious with its open-plan kitchen, living and dining area creating a relaxed feel. The sleek linear kitchen maximises space whilst offering plenty of storage, a gas cooktop and stainless steel dishwasher. Frosted glass sliding doors offer privacy between the living area and the robed Queen-sized bedroom. The contemporary bathroom features a toilet, shower and vanity with handy face-level storage. Its prime waterfront position means you can take in the sights and sounds of Newcastle's iconic working harbour whilst being only 5 minutes away from anywhere in the CBD, with added value in the Newcastle light rail less than 500m away. -?Single secure parking space-?Ducted air-conditioning throughout-?European style private laundry-?A stone's throw from Honeysuckle Hotel-?280m from The Forum Harbourside gym
