Drift off to sleep with the distant sound of the ocean at night and wake up to coffee and breakfast at an array of cafes on your doorstep. Lifestyle and location are a given at 'The Eastside' apartments' complex where you are spoilt for choice with beach days, dining, shopping, and entertainment galore all around. Privacy prevails here with this apartment's location at the end of the first floor hallway with a nearby stairwell taking you easily and directly to your dedicated car spot. The position also gifts north south orientation filling the main bedroom, living area, and kitchen with beautiful natural light and hints of the sea breeze. Timber floors and fresh décor sets the tone in a surprisingly roomy two bedroom layout offering space for entertaining or a quiet spot to work from home. Living in this prized location presents a lifestyle of convenience and choice. In addition to the natural beauty of ocean beaches and baths, parks and the harbour, there are seemingly endless opportunities for entertainment as new venues continue to flock to this neighbourhood. With everyday conveniences close at hand and the light rail station only a few minutes walk away you'll have everything you need and desire within easy reach.
