Tucked away in the desirable neighborhood of Flora Hill, this charming 1930s character home seamlessly blends vintage charm with modern comforts. With three bedrooms plus a study, two bathrooms, and a convenient single carport, it's the perfect retreat for families. As you enter, the living area welcomes you with its bright, airy atmosphere, while the open-plan kitchen, complete with a spacious island bench, sets the stage for culinary adventures and gatherings. The master bedroom offers a serene escape, while the additional bedrooms, each with built-in robes, provide plenty of space for family or guests. The versatile study can easily adapt to suit your lifestyle needs. For those who value sustainability, a 3kW solar system ensures energy efficiency. Outside, you'll find a shed and a carport that provide ample storage space for your tools and vehicles. Conveniently located within minutes' drive of the CBD, this residence offers the best of both worlds: timeless charm and modern convenience.
