Welcome to 108/1217 Nepean Highway, Highett – an exquisite first-floor apartment that combines spacious living, modern design, and a secure lifestyle. Boasting 2 generously sized bedrooms, both adorned with built-in robes, split system air conditioning, and heating units, this residence offers comfort and convenience. The bedrooms are bathed in natural light, creating a warm and inviting ambiance. The main bathroom is a testament to luxury, featuring stone bench tops, a toilet, a sizable walk-in shower, and ample storage space. The heart of this residence lies in its expansive living area, situated at the rear of the apartment with a coveted north-facing aspect. Flooded with natural light, this space is complemented by a split system air conditioning and heating unit, ensuring year-round comfort. The sleek kitchen is a chef's delight, complete with an oven, cooktop, built-in dishwasher, and fridge, accompanied by an abundance of cupboard storage. Step onto the private and secure north-facing balcony, an ideal retreat for relaxation. The living area is adorned with blinds, providing both natural light and privacy throughout the entire apartment. For added convenience, the property includes a dedicated storage cage and a secure car space. Situated within a short stroll of Westfield Shopping Centre, as well as Highett and Cheltenham train stations and shops, this location epitomizes modern living with easy access to amenities.
