Carefully considered architectural design pairs with a stunning unusually large entertainer's terrace. Host friends and family and enjoy an inner-city garden. Private terraces of this size are rare in properties like this. Take in uninterrupted sunset views in a peaceful setting on the west side of the building away from the hustle and bustle of High Street in this super stylish two bedroom, two bathroom apartment. The property is in a premium location, right on the border of Thornbury. The spacious open plan living interior features a well-appointed kitchen with chic Blanco appliances and stone benchtops, breakfast bar and ample storage. The level of excellence continues into the spacious bedrooms and on-trend designer bathrooms. The main bedroom features a large walk-in robe, ensuite and custom fitted study area. The second bedroom opens up onto the lush terrace space. Featuring engineered oak flooring, split system heating and cooling, Euro laundry, security intercom, lift access, generous car space and two storage cages. Immaculately presented, this truly one of a kind property is the perfect choice for discerning first home buyers or investors alike. Don't miss this unique property which puts the fashionable cafes, bars and trams of High Street Thornbury right at your doorstep.
