SOLD by Jellis Craig. Family living at its finest awaits you in one of Melbourne's most prestigious suburbs, offering ample space and a delightful atmosphere for families to enjoy the best of inner north living. As you enter through the leadlight door, you'll be immediately captivated by the warmth and character that exudes from this charming home. The accommodation and living spaces provided are truly impressive. On one side, you'll find a bedroom or rumpus room featuring a beautiful bay window, to the other a home office fit for modern day work from home and offering flexible storage for various needs. The convenience of a central laundry with a bathroom to the rear ensures practicality, while the lounge area with a cozy fireplace provides the perfect place to unwind after a long day. The heart of the home lies in the large open-plan living and dining area at the rear, complete with a well-appointed kitchen featuring an island bench, perfect for hosting gatherings. The stacker doors open to an expansive decking area and a covered entertaining space overlooking the landscaped backyard. The backyard is a true oasis with a cubby, fire pit area, and a resort-style pool with a seating cabana, providing a serene and inviting space for relaxation and entertainment. Venturing upstairs, you'll discover three more generously sized bedrooms, two of which include built-in robes and study desks. The elegant main bathroom serves these bedrooms, whilst the fourth and master suite offers a retreat-style feel with an abundance natural light and views of the backyard. The master comes complete with a walk-in robe and ensuite featuring double shower and sinks, and a retreat sitting area perfect for reading a book. For those who work from home, there's a private study offering a peaceful workspace. The home boasts numerous extras, including hydronic heating for comfort, split system cooling, and ceiling fans in most rooms to keep you cool during warmer days. An internal courtyard adds a touch of charm, while the oversized garage offers plenty of storage and working space. Additional off-street parking is available behind a secure electric gate, providing spaces for three more vehicles. This luxurious home is ideal for families who love to entertain friends and cherish a warm and spacious environment. It is conveniently located in a premier locale, with easy access to Fairfield Village, Darebin Parklands, well-regarded schools, and excellent transportation options. Don't miss the opportunity to immerse yourself in this exceptional family home, designed to offer the epitome of comfort, style, and convenience. Arrange an inspection to experience the elegance and allure of this stunning property.
