If you're after your forever home, without a doubt this one's for you! Renovated with the idea of stylish comfort all year round from the fireplace to the large family kitchen to the undercover alfresco back deck all the way to the pool! Split between two levels all the finer details have been sorted for you, this property is sure to tick all of your boxes. Stepping into the heart of the home you will be blown away by the modern entertainer's kitchen, fully equipped with hidden integrated dishwasher, fully plumbed refrigerator, free standing 7 burner gas stove top and an oven that will have you spoiled for choice. Step outside onto the private rear timber deck which provides stunning views creating a serene backdrop for relaxation and entertaining all year round. Flexibility in layout is a key feature of this home, with a well thought out bedroom on the ground floor with ensuite perfect for the visiting family and friends. THINGS WE LOVE: • Stone benchtops in the kitchen • 6 well-appointed bedrooms with built-in wardrobes • Fully renovated • Central fireplace • Fruit trees and well-established gardens • freestanding bath with uninterrupted views that go on forever • Family pool Take a walk up the stairs and you will be greeted by the 5 well-appointed and generous sized bedrooms all with built in wardrobes. With the features never ending you'll be amazed with the views from the main bathroom, take that glass of wine and book and relax in the freestanding bath after a long day! This charming home enjoys a position that provides both privacy and picturesque views, fully protected from the street with established hedges and luscious gardens at the front to the uninterrupted rural views at the back. This home presents a wonderful opportunity to create cherished memories in a truly idyllic setting. Experience the allure of the backdrop and modern renovations and discover firsthand the comfort, functionality, and natural beauty that await within this stunning Nowra home.
