Perched in the Coolgardie hills, this home offers spectacular eastern views that sweep north and south to the sea. At the end of a private road, the house is nestled in a secluded plateau surrounded by 46 acres of natural landscapes, both pasture and forest. The house has a unique brick sandstone finish with deep verandahs wrapping around all sides, spilling out to the established gardens. The heart of the home features a huge country style kitchen, with electric appliances, gas cooktop, dishwasher & walk in pantry and adjoins the generous dining room. With two large living areas the home looks directly to the view. High ceilings and open plan layout throughout, give a lovely feeling of space. The main bedroom is north facing and includes a study, built in robe, ensuite and private entrance. The 2 extra bedrooms, generously proportioned both with built-in-ropes, share the main bathroom with separate toilet. Entertain by the inground swimming pool in the covered outdoor area and take in incredible views. Multicar accommodation, a handyman's or hobbyists three-garage shed/workshop, - Solar panels- Five water tanks- Two dams - Stock proof paddocks The pasture is fenced for stock but can be slashed if preferred. The forest has high ecological value and is a nature lover's delight with native birds and wildlife aplenty. Explore to find some of the finest beaches on the coast, with the property only 14 km to thriving Ballina and Ballina Byron Airport, and 41 km to Byron Bay. The owners of 20 years have bought elsewhere and it is the time for them to move on. Feel welcome to inspect at an open home or privately with exclusive agent Gabrielle Thompson.
