10a Leah Street, Aberfoyle Park, SA 5159

Area: 686 m2

Type: Residential Land

Naomi Will

$230,000

Land available in established, sought after area. Massive 686 Square metres for you to build your designer home on! All serious, reasonable offers will be presented to the owners for consideration, but I like to advise that offers in the high $300k's and above would be seriously considered. All offers are to be presented as stated to the vendors. Lovely outlook to the north over the trees.....enjoy living in this lovely suburb. Reserves and the local secret, Pine Park, is a very short walk away only. Your new allotment is already retained and fenced....and your builder will be happy with the driveway already in place! Come and view, consider that offer for this highly desirable allotment.
