Step into a sanctuary of modern style and comfort in this ideal, inviting one bedroom apartment - a residence that represents more than simply a home but delivers a highly desirable urban lifestyle experience. Convenience matches quality and character as Preston's renovated train station, Preston Market, and High Street's vibrant restaurant scene are merely moments away - and we're talking walking! The luxury of an exceptionally large living/dining domain is accompanied by leafy balcony outlooks and a kitchen equipped with stainless steel appliances, granite benches and stylish storage while the design's bright double bedroom, with built-in robes, is complemented by a beautifully fitted bathroom. Completely secure, in a development featuring communal outdoor dimensions and an allocated underground parking space, capture a Preston apartment where all the attributes - from both lifestyle and investment perspectives - are positive and Melbourne's CBD is always readily reached.
