This perfectly presented home enhances and is enhanced by a tree filled backdrop. Set on 781m² and presenting a sleek facade to the street, 11-13 Dunamis Court projects out into its own tranquil bush setting where there is ample space for the children to run free and explore. Boasting four generous bedrooms, two separate living areas and an open plan to capture the bush backdrop, this home has been designed with a focus on family. The master suite is reached via a light filled staircase. This oversized space exudes intimacy and seclusion and is exquisitely presented. A large walk-in robe and a beautifully finished ensuite completes this set of spaces, providing the perfect retreat from the pressures of everyday life. The entertainer in you will appreciate the massive covered outdoor space! This space brings the outdoors in and provides the perfect ambiance for all season entertaining. Marketing agent Nathan Strudwick said, "This property has been immaculately kept. In every aspect of presentation and upkeep. Seeking less stress and more time to do what you want? Then you must inspect this picture-perfect property."
