Perfectly positioned close to Caboolture East State School, Child Care Centre, and Caboolture Hospital, Queensland University of Technology, TAFE, Train Station and Central Lakes Shopping Village. There is even a huge park & play ground directly across the street. 3 generous sized bedrooms feature built in wardrobes, as well as lovely block out roller blinds and ceiling fans. Enjoy the ease of preparing the family meals in the lovely spacious kitchen with electric oven & huge double door pantry, and then serve them up in the large open plan combined meals/living room. The bathroom has a shower over the bath and plenty of storage. Talking of storage - this home has loads of it - with 3 double door linen cupboards situated in the bathroom, hallway and laundry! There is even a surprise lock up storage room with the door on the exterior wall of the house that could be used for the lawn mower or kids bikes. The laundry has enough room for the washer & the dryer, but you will want to take advantage of pegging the family's washing on the Hills Hoist clothes line in the huge back yard. The yard has a secure fence, with double gates that open up to the undercover car port. Other features include- Sturdy brick & tile construction- Side access via double gates- Security screens to all windows & doors Applications being processed now - Apply Today We don't Accept 1Form!
