Nestled with a delightful view overlooking Sir William Angliss Park, this recently renovated 2-bedroom apartment presents an enticing lifestyle opportunity. Situated in close proximity to Auburn station and the Swinburne campus, its allure is undeniable. The expansive central living and dining space harmonize with a new immaculate separate kitchen, creating a practical layout for day-to-day living. Two ample bedrooms, each boasting built-in robes, share a meticulously maintained bathroom. With new wooden flooring, flawless paint finishes, and ample natural light pouring in from the north-facing aspect, this strategically positioned property holds immense appeal in a highly sought-after locale with consistent demand. Complete with a single car space, this property offers added convenience for its occupants.
