With Westgarth's vibrant High Street strip an easy stroll away, this offers a perfect home base for enviable Inner Melbourne living. Set back amidst a secure boutique development, this hidden gem features a light-filled first-floor living space boasting an ultra-flexible open layout, which flows from a deluxe modern kitchen out to a large entertainer's balcony. Downstairs finds two bedrooms with mirrored BIR, a gleaming modern bathroom with walk-in shower, and a dedicated study nook or home office workspace. This great property is rounded out by a Euro laundry, split-system heating/cooling, and a secure garage car space and storage unit. The brilliant locale is metres away from an incredible stretch of parklands along the Yarra River and Merri Creek. Stroll to the cinemas, cafés and restaurants of High Street, or to all the retail options lining Station Street. Dennis Station is a short walk away, and there's quick access onto the Eastern Freeway.
