Imagine your daily life in Newcastle, where golden beaches, an iconic harbour, and a historic city full of dining, arts, and entertainment surround you. Now, think about all these lifestyle gems seamlessly becoming part of your routine with this fourth-floor Silk House apartment. Tucked away on Hunter Street, this hidden treasure boasts a stunning north-facing view. Thanks to its floor-to-ceiling glass and a delightful built-in window seat, the harbour practically becomes your front yard. You'll never grow tired of watching ships sail into port, catching the New Year's Eve fireworks, and enjoying instant access to dining, community events, and refreshing foreshore walks leading to Nobbys Beach or Honeysuckle. This house-size apartment exudes pure excellence with its open plan design, modern kitchen, and two smartly renovated bathrooms serving three robed bedrooms. And let's not even mention the two side-by-side parking spaces included—chances are, you'd rather explore the area on foot. Take a leisurely stroll to the new East End Village, kickstart your day with a caffeine fix at Mister Sister, grab essentials from Woolies Metro, or enjoy a meal out at Oh My Papa, Betty's Burgers, or the upscale QT Newcastle. Forget about the hassle of driving – enjoy easy access to The Station, Queen's Wharf, and Darby Street offering you endless leisure options right at your doorstep.
