Peacefully tucked away toward the back of a well-maintained security building, this newly refreshed one bedroom apartment looks out through the surrounding treetops to capture ever evolving district views. A perfect city base, first home or investment opportunity, the floorplan provides excellent separation between the entry, sleeping quarters and the open plan living space. Freshly painted throughout, the living and dining showcase new laminate timber look flooring with plush carpet softening the hallway and bedroom. Topped in granite, the streamlined kitchen features gas cooking and a stainless-steel dishwasher. Stepping out to a relaxing balcony through sliding glass doors, the living area enjoys a dual aspect. Positioned on entry level, there is level lift access from the secure parking and to the building's swimming pool and gymnasium. Proving location truly is everything, walk to the Mater Hospital, transport options and the Crows Nest foodie scene in mere minutes.
