With new carpets and freshly painted walls, this picturesque two-bedroom apartment delivers a classic layout that cannot go wrong. Both bedrooms are equipped with built-in wardrobes, and ample space in the study means you can easily turn this space into a third bedroom if required. The kitchen is in the prime location to overlook the living and dining area, with this large open space giving you plenty of room for a variety of layout options. Enjoy the benefits of top floor apartment living and make the most of the open air with the apartment's balcony-the ideal space to enjoy your morning coffee before the work day ahead. With access to your own personal lock-up garage you can enjoy the convenience of an on-site car space. And being located walking distance to the local train station and Westfield, you can rest assured that you will have everything you need at your fingertips. This is a small slice of property heaven not to miss. Enquire now for an inspection!
