Step inside this little beachside beauty with the ease of low maintenance living in mind. Located in a desirable pocket of Frankston South within walking distance to Frankston, boasting cafes, beautiful beaches, shops, amazing restaurants and public transport. With nothing more to do than move in and enjoy this immaculate fresh 2-bedroom home. Offering an open plan bright north facing kitchen with plenty of storage, a gorgeous dining and living zone with neutral tones, and the added bonus of study nook. A centrally located crisp white bathroom/laundry. Other features include split system heating and cooling, a carport on title and a private balcony perfect for those morning coffees. Zoned for Frankston High School and Frankston Primary School and moments away from Monash University and Frankston Hospital. This amazing opportunity will appeal to a multitude of buyers looking to capitalise on a long-term investment or a first home in a highly desirable beachside location.
