Refreshed with real style & perfection this super-hot apartment has it all, even the perfect street facing top floor private position, enjoying a leafy aspect and loads of North light that shines through big windows. It shows off about an entrance hall, sleek separate kitchen that offers a cool servery, spacious living, very private bedroom, classy fully tiled bathroom that offers a bathtub and undercover parking. Superb finishes of Caesar Stone bench tops, glass splash backs, front loader washing machine option, fitted mirrored robe, linen & broom cupboard and likeable timber floating floor throughout, underline commitment to quality in every way. In a well-cared for retro apartment block, which has a powerful sense of community spirit, set around its own garden setting and just metres away from Croxton Community Gardens. This convenient street really lets its residents to connect spiritually and conveniently to what you need to get out of living in Terrific Thornbury. Its So Fine, There's No Other Way To Go...
