Nothing short of a barefoot stroll to Newcastle Beach, this top (third) floor 'Pacific Court' apartment is your lucky chance to embrace the quintessential Newcastle lifestyle. From here, a swim in the newly refurbished ocean baths, a surf at the famed Cowrie Hole, or a seaside brekky or lunch are all simply effortless. Light and bright and positioned at the rear to catch ocean views from the main bedroom and harbour glimpses from the second bedroom, this open plan apartment connects to a sun-kissed balcony for alfresco enjoyment. Living here is as breezy as the ocean air with a secure car space and your chance to make the apartment shine with some minor cosmetic updates. For coffee and dining, take a leisurely stroll to Café 2300, Scotties, or Estabar. Walk to the harbour or the end of the street and hop onto the light rail through the city centre to Newcastle Interchange. Whether it's a beachside haven or investment you're seeking, the lifestyle here is beyond compare.
