$750 per week (Unfurnished)

This architect designed two bedroom apartment is located on level three of the popular LIV building overlooking Queen Victoria Street. Featuring ducted air-conditioning, quality appliances and a spacious balcony with a privacy screen for comfortable, inner city living. Sustainability built, the apartment has ceiling fans and water and energy efficient fixtures that will save you money while saving the environment! In the kitchen you will find quality AEG appliances, stone benchtops, electric cooktop, a large island bench/ breakfast bar, soft closing drawers and plenty of overhead storage. Adjoining the kitchen is a light and bright open plan living area which leads through to the bedrooms (both with built in robes) and out to a spacious balcony. The balcony (which is also accessed from the main bedroom) looks out over the unique Dalgety Woolstores heritage building. The addition of a sliding screen means you can block out the sun and create more privacy, giving you the option of an extra living space. A standout feature of the apartment is the whisper quiet design. Double-glazed windows, acoustic carpet underlays, sound-smart walls and insulated pipes mean minimal noise between yourself and neighbours. This fantastic inner city apartment is walking distance to Gesha and Broody Hen coffee shops. As well as the Fremantle Arts Centre and the Leisure Centre. Located approx. 1.2kms from Fremantle's city centre, you can access the surrounding areas and Perth CBD via convenient public transport links or cycle networks. Features include: -First home open will be Saturday 15/6/24, please register in order to be notified of the time -Secure apartment complex -Spacious balcony with privacy screen -Quality fixtures and fittings -Ducted air-conditioning -Ceiling fans -Dishwasher & Dryer included -Energy efficient design -Shared BBQ area -Car bay for one vehicle Interested in this property?
