Positioned for unbeatable convenience, this beautifully presented Art Deco apartment offers a quiet yet easy lifestyle. Leading inside it flows through to a light drenched living and dining zone where dark timber floorboards harmonise with high ceilings and timeless period details. Claiming an elevated corner block setting, the floorplan takes full advantage of expansive district outlooks and blissful breezes from the various windows. Alongside a large and well appointed kitchen, the interiors cater for a range of demographics with three bright bedrooms and a neatly kept bathroom. A fantastic choice for home owners and investors alike, the location is second to none with light rail transport, cafes and shops of Anzac Parade, local reserves and more awaiting at the end of the street. UNSW is only a level stroll away, as is Centennial Park's recreational activities, Kensington Public School and premier golf courses. - Light filled open living area enhanced by picture rails and ornate cornices - Corner position captures local area and streetscape vistas - Spacious kitchen features gas cooktop and casual meals bar - Three welcoming and airy bedrooms with plantation shutters - Tidy bathroom has shower and frosted window - Suitable for a professional, couple, investor or family - Moments from the Supa Centa and Zetland's East Village - Close proximity to Prince of Wales Hospital - Handy to Coogee Beach and Surry Hills' nightlife
