Are you in search of an investment property without the hassle of maintenance and lawn care? Imagine owning a charming log cabin in the exclusive Stewarts Bay, where properties are rarely available. This is your chance to acquire a slice of paradise with the added benefit of a well-maintained property. Situated within a world heritage-listed National Park, Stewarts Bay Lodge is a popular destination surrounded by picturesque nature, wildlife, and stunning crystal blue waters with white sandy shores. Now on the market is a well-presented 1-bedroom log cabin utilised for short-term managed accommodation. The cabin, part of Stewarts Bay Lodge, is overseen by on-site managers who handle bookings, cleaning, and maintenance on your behalf. Fully furnished, the cabin features a spacious bedroom, a separate bathroom, and a laundry area. The well-equipped kitchen and open-plan living space with a door leading to a timber deck provide an ideal spot to unwind after exploring the captivating Tasman Peninsula. Owners have the added flexibility to use the cabin for personal use for up to 30 days a year. Details regarding the cabin's financials and additional information are available upon request. Enjoy the convenience of a short stroll to the sheltered beach of Stewarts Bay, with walking tracks leading to the Port Arthur Historic Site. Cabin 11 offers easy access to the on-site restaurant and playground. Located just a 90-minute drive from Hobart along the scenic Arthur Highway, this property offers a unique blend of tranquillity and accessibility.
