Nestled in an ideal location just moments away from the vibrant Oxford Street and its abundant lifestyle offerings, this beautifully renovated Queenslander exudes timeless beauty and charm. The elegant design of the home embraces a harmonious blend of tranquillity, spaciousness and luxury and easily caters for the modern family with its two-level design. Recently completed to a very high standard throughout, there is not a thing left to do but move in and enjoy. The gorgeous early-1900's facade is accessed by a manicured front lawn with the front wrap-around covered veranda the perfect hint of what lies within. The upper entry floor of the home offers open plan living that is both sophisticated and charming, with its traditional internal features such as polished timber floors, ornate breezeways and character VJ's throughout. Boasting a new and stunning gourmet kitchen that has been flawlessly designed for functionality and equipped with high quality NEFF appliances, ample storage and a butlers pantry, entertaining will be a breeze with its vast open spaces and superb North-facing entertaining verandah. There are four generous bedrooms on the upper floor, two with private retreats/sunrooms, as well as a lavish light filled bathroom. The north-facing main bedroom is nothing short of exceptional and also includes a large walk-in-robe and luxurious ensuite. To the rear, the entertaining deck with outdoor kitchen lends itself perfectly to a variety of occasions and is well-connected to the patio, lush lawn and sparkling pool. The lower level is home to the fifth bedroom, a large rumpus and sizable study that can comfortably house two work stations. The rumpus area provides a great space to entertain but is also a great place to occupy while keeping a watchful eye over the kids. Additionally, there is a laundry room with the third bathroom and a large double garage with plenty of storage completing the bottom floor. Other features the home has to offer: + Solar power + Split system air-conditioning + Ceiling fans + Plantation shutters + 7200 litre rainwater tank Nestled just moments away from an array of dining and leisure establishments, convenient transport options and some of Brisbane's finest private (Churchie, Lourdes Hill and CHAC) and public (Bulimba SS & Balmoral SHS) schools, this remarkable location puts everything you could desire right at your doorstep. You are also set to reap the benefits of its close proximity to the eagerly awaited and highly anticipated Bulimba Barracks precinct. Auction date has been set for Saturday 12th August 2023 to be held onsite at 10:00am.
