Burnside continues to go from strength to strength and this delightful family home will not last long in this hot market. Sitting on a gently sloping 620m² block in a quiet, single entrance neighborhood, this beautiful 3-bedroom home has been recently updated with a stunning new kitchen featuring stone benchtops, hanging lights, tiled splash back, all new cabinetry and grand island bench. New paint and lighting features throughout the home, with hardwood timber floors, new built-in robes to all bedrooms, and plantation shutters to the bathroom, toilet, and two of the three bedrooms. From the large primary living, classic sliding doors open up to the large verandah with views out to Mount Ninderry and direct access to the large backyard. Under the house is a massive, full-brick storage and workshop space with the laundry and hot water system, and under-house storage for a single vehicle. With ample side access, rooftop solar, and 7kw split-system air-conditioner in the main living, this beautiful home will be very popular. This location is incredibly desirable, located a few minutes' walk to local shops, cafes, restaurants and daycares, and a very short drive to local schools. Vacant and ready to sell, this home will be very popular.
