This young home situated in the well regarded Stonehill Estate ticks all the boxes for the investor or for the family looking for more room. With four carpeted bedrooms, en-suite in the main bedroom with a spacious walk in robe and plenty of space, and with mirrored built in robes in all other bedrooms, this provides great accommodation for the young family. The tiled open plan living area provides good space with the kitchen featuring an island bench, gas cook top with hood, oven, and dishwasher overlooking the dining and relaxing space equipped with both Ducted heating and cooling, curtains, roller blinds and sliding door to the neat and tidy backyard. The backyard boasts the very sought after side access that so many modern homes lack, giving you the option to store your vehicles safely off the road. The home features a family bathroom with bath, shower, vanity with a separate toilet, laundry with outside access. A double garage with remote and internal access, solar hot water and colourbond fencing for privacy completing the picture.
