Upon entry from the verandah out the front, the long hallway gives access to most rooms. With tiled and floating floor throughout the kitchen with dining area down the end flows through to living area. Through passage way, with built-in cupboards to either side, and down a few stairs you enter into an area that has an adjoining room beside. Sliding glass doors to both rooms to give exterior access plus double doors to separate these two areas. The bathroom has plunge bath, separate shower, vanity unit with mirror over, wall cupboard and shelving with toilet located nearby plus a laundry room to complete this area. Two sets of stairs from the front verandah take you down to the covered parking area or to the front of the home with gate access to both the home and the carport. On a fully fenced freehold corner block this home is situated in the township of Bluff.
