

11 Casuarina Lane, Ansons Bay, Tas 7264

Sold House

Saturday, 17 February 2024

11 Casuarina Lane, Ansons Bay, Tas 7264

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Area: 259 m2

Type: House

Kate Spilsbury
0419683904

Contact agent

Experience the charm of a traditional-style shack nestled in the sought-after holiday haven of Ansons Bay. Positioned right on the serene waters of the Ansons Bay, this unassuming abode invites you to cast your line just steps from your own private jetty or launch your boat or kayak?Boasting three bedrooms, a bathroom, a well-equipped kitchen, and a comfortably sized living area, this retreat offers the ideal respite. Stay cozy during winter evenings with a crackling wood heater, while summer invites the refreshing waterfront breeze indoors. Whether seeking a family getaway or envisioning a stunning waterfront residence, this home caters to both dreams.Seize the opportunity to create cherished family moments in Ansons Bay. Embrace the warmth of this haven and start crafting your unforgettable memories today. Ansons Bay is a classic Tassie coastal village enjoyed by families for generations for its beauty, fantastic fishing and peacefulness. The East Coast's major centre of St Helens is just 38 minutes away and Gladstone 27 minutes. This will be a spot your family will love coming back to time and time again.If an escape to the serenity of Ansons Bay ticks your boxes, contact our office to arrange an inspection today.