FRANKSTON SOUTH: This property is a spacious home that has undergone partial renovation. The interior features laminate timber floorboards throughout, adding a touch of warmth and elegance. The master bedroom is particularly spacious and comes with built-in robes, providing ample storage space. The ensuite bathroom is beautifully designed, boasting stone benchtops and dual vanities for added convenience. The living area flows seamlessly from the master bedroom, leading to a newly renovated kitchen. The kitchen is modern and stylish, with a glass splashback, cathedral ceilings, and high-quality appliances. It's a perfect space for cooking and entertaining. The meals and family room offer a great view of the spacious backyard, which is complete with a free-standing gazebo, making it a fantastic spot for outdoor gatherings and relaxation. The main bathroom has also been renovated and now features stone benchtops and a large bathtub, allowing for a luxurious bathing experience. Additionally, the property has ample space in both the front and back yard, offering plenty of room for various activities and potential landscaping opportunities. Overall, this property combines spaciousness, modern renovations, and attractive features, making it a desirable and comfortable living space.
